Angel: hey, are you here? I can't handle going visible, too tired to think, to talk, but want to know your thoughts on atty
me: they can't do shit, the connection between the two companies has already been explained by a number of other outlets me: and it's not your assertion Angel: her note and the ones from Command and control spokesperson -- might do well me: you just printed my report, so I'm the one making the assertion me: I'm e-mailing her now to clarify as well as to explain that "parent company" is more than accurate Angel: Just wanted you to know that they had already reached out, would say it's damage control
Angel: you know, I know it is, but you ever get so low on sleep that thinking, typing is kinda beyond you?
Angel: that's me now
Angel: take out my email addy when I forwarded it me: yep
me: go to sleep
Angel: I did not reply to her via this email me: I won't put your addy anywhere
Angel: I used privacysecurityfanatic@hotmail.com
Angel: a quick search using hbgary.com as term, brings 452 results Angel: Be careful Barrett. If you need anything, just hit me up. Signing off for now. Thanks for trusting me with this info. I hope it helps Angel: later,
Angel
